19. To strive for the fulfillment of other objectives and schemes that may be decided by the Trustees from time to time. To work wholeheartedly towards one or more of the above objectives.

5. Structure:

1. The total number of trustees of the said Trust is not limited. However, it should not be less than 10.

Currently, the structure of the trustees will consist of the 12 persons mentioned above. When necessary, new trustees may be appointed as required, with the consent of 60% of the existing trustees.

All the above trustees shall continue as trustees for their lifetime. However, if any trustee passes away, resigns for any reason, or is removed, the trustees may, if they wish, appoint another person to fill the vacancy. However, the person so appointed must be an Indian citizen. For such an appointment, at least 60% of the remaining trustees must give their consent.

The consent for this must be obtained at a special meeting convened for the purpose.

A trustee appointed in this manner shall not have the right, for a period of one year, to appoint new trustees or to elect members of the executive committee. Furthermore, for one year, they are not permitted to contest for administrative positions such as Chairman, Secretary, or Treasurer. At any time, if the total number of trustees falls below the specified minimum of 10, new trustees may be added with the consent of 60% of the remaining trustees.

6. Administration:

The entire administration of the above-mentioned Trust shall be carried out by the trustees specified above. To manage the administration efficiently and effectively, they may form sub-committees among themselves. They may also appoint staff and assistants with the proper approval of the trustees.
